

senior ad Information

To all Parents and Friends of the Class of 2010:

What better way to commemorate the accomplishment of high school graduation than to honor your student with a personal ad in the 2010 Legacy yearbook. When all other graduation gifts have been long forgotten, a senior ad will remain as a reminder of your pride in their accomplishments. The Legacy staff is proud to offer you the opportunity to salute your student in the 2010 volume.

Here you will find the information you need to reserve your space and create your ad. Ads are accepted for individual students or groups of students. Two or more seniors can purchase friendship ads, but the personal ad section of the book is only for the senior class.

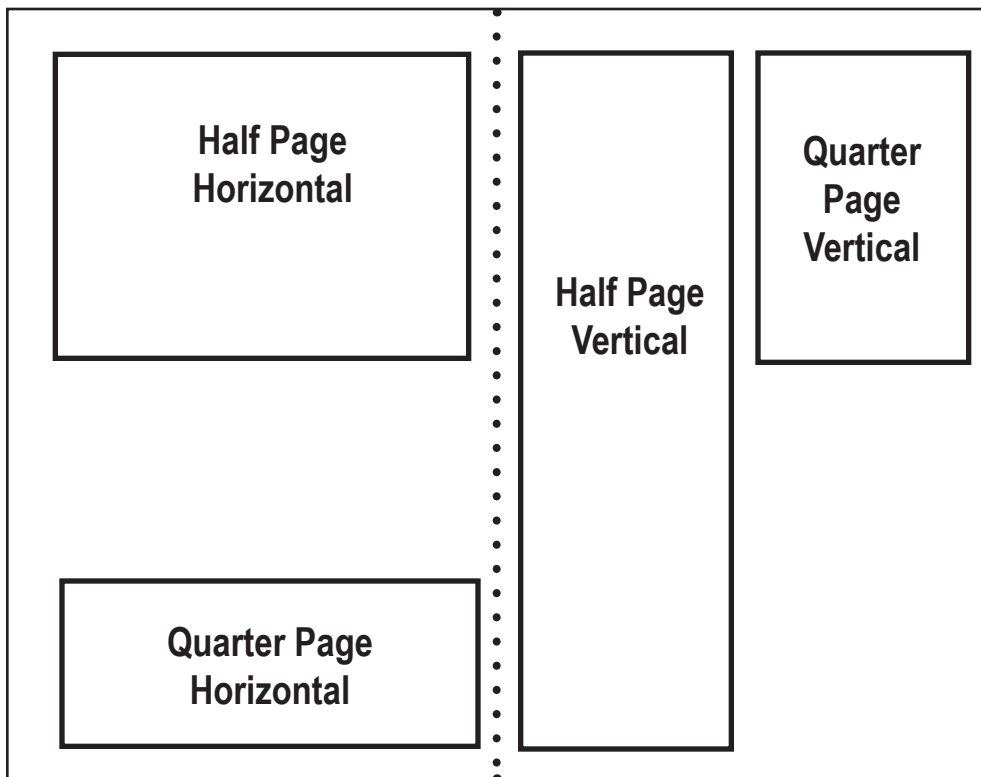

If you have any questions please call 469-633-5849 or email me at babineac@friscoisd.org. We look forward to helping you with your ad,

Carole Babineaux
Publications Adviser
